

Minds&More supports clients to achieve growth through excellence in Marketing, Sales & Transformation since 2010 through flexible consulting, training and interim management solutions across Belgium and beyond. We operate as a network of Partners & Associates: carefully selected independent expert professionals in marketing and/or sales who work together to provide the right service at the right time. We are all driven by the values we share: integrity, accountability, participation, pragmatism and service quality.

We are looking for a

Management Consultant

Function

You will be staffed on advisory-type of consulting projects (from advice to implementation of the recommendations). Over time you would rotate from project to project and client to client, which will expose you to a variety of roles and industry sectors. Throughout your time at Minds&More you would be counseled and coached by the founding partners and seasoned senior associates. In order to grow your expertise in Marketing & Sales domains, you would be immersed in our topnotch Academy.

If you want to...

- To be part of the most exciting marketing, sales & transformation consulting firm and the most vibrant expert network in Belgium
- To work on challenging projects in a flat project structure, working side-by-side our senior Partners or seasoned professionals
- To broaden your horizon by delivering projects in different industries and working with senior client contacts/stakeholders
- A fast learning track through on-the-job learning, specific training and personal coaching from our Partner team

Then you need to...

- Bring 3 to 5 years of experience in big 4 or strategy consulting firm whereby you have learned to work in teams with a variety of stakeholders, on a variety of business consulting projects with a focus on Marketing & Sales (this is a “must have”, not a “nice to have”)
- Have a university degree. A post-graduate degree is an asset
- Be an avid follower of the latest evolutions in digital and you like to evaluate how these innovations can support or optimize business processes
- Have a keen interest in Marketing & Sales and have experience and deep interest in projects such as market & opportunity sizing, distribution models, segmentation, pricing, product portfolio reviews, innovation processes, pricing optimizations, customer journey roadmaps, customer experience reviews, digital transformation, etc...

- Be recognized as an excellent project manager
- Be a strong communicator, both in terms of project sharing as well as delivering messages

It Goes Without Saying That...

- You are a team player; open, transparent and fun to work with
- You are fluent in English, Dutch and French
- You have raving references of former managers, clients or colleagues
- We will immerse you in our Sales, Marketing & Transformation Academy content
